3.0 Any other business:

Proposal put forward to move training to Sunday's from Saturday's

3.1. Jamie Banks ran through Year 1 of 4 Year plan.

Reported on team's success and final standings for all teams.

Getting Devon Women's team was discussed. Plan to have more promotion of the Devon Women's team and more Devon Women's involvement.

Getting a Devon Women's team to a European tournament would be good but make attending UKU Nationals a priority

Abi Cox would like a Devon Women vs. Picnic vs. Uriel round robin once a month. Rotate through Plymouth and Exeter.

Abi Cox also wants Devon to push to get 2 Devon Women's teams at a Tour event in the new season

Punctuality was discussed. Plan to have more structure to sessions to encourage punctuality. If start time is 6:30 then we are starting to warm up at that time, no deviation.

Izzy Burke raised issue of Student drop off and less players at training in the summer. Committee will look into ways to keep numbers high in summer months

All agreed having a Devon Combine was a good idea. Plan to hold one in November and then one in the spring.

D2 players expressed a desire to attend European tournaments

Committee to check DBS levels needed for junior attendances. Plan to check our policy, child to adult ratio, gender ratios.

4.1.2: Devon 1 have performed brilliantly, rising higher than ever at UKU Tour, making Semi-final at Nationals, qualified for European Champions League.

4.1.3: Devon 2 to work on their communication so more player's area aware when tournaments and training are

4.1.4: Devon 3 Steamroller to keep pushing forwards, providing a platform for all levels of players

4.1.4: Devon Women to keep pushing to have higher finishes at Tour and consistence in team selection

4.1.7: Devon Mixed 1 to stay top 20 in Mixed Tour

4.1.8: Keep trying to field a Devon Mixed 2

4.2: Budget Report. Devon Ultimate is in the black and the account is stable.

5.1.1.1: Chris Alves-Greenland runs unopposed as Communications Sectary

5.1.1.2: Jamie Banks, Joe Bampton, Robbie Kyme, Fran Datham, Chris Alves-Greenland to form club coaching staff

Abi Cox and Jess Taylor put names forward to aid women's coaching

5.1.1.3: Robbie Kyme runs unopposed for treasurer

5.1.1.8: Jamie Banks runs unopposed as President.

6.1: Current kit design to stay until 2019. Different kit suppliers were discussed. Committee to contact and make decision on supplier for 2016.

6.2: Jamie Banks looking into stash with Watteva clothing to try to get: warm up tops for club, trackie bottoms and casual wear.

7.1: Membership still £5. Now membership to run from October till September

Advertise who is a member on the website.

Early Bird deal for £40 for 3 Tours MUST be done by the end of January 2016.

After this point it is £18 per Tour (£54 for 3)

7.2: Links to council strong and good dialog in place. Plan to continue this

7.3: Increased events with Active Devon, more schools playing. Offer help and coaching where we can.

7.4: See above.

8.0: Training to move to Sunday's from Saturday's.

Generally opposed. Raised that Picnic training is on a Sunday so half of players would no longer attend.

Training to remain on Saturdays. Big training's will start at 10am. Otherwise Saturday training will start at 10-11 for Development Hour then normal training will start at 11am till 2pm

8.1: Liaisons:

Uriel: Jess Taylor to become liaison

Picnic: Tom Black and Ben Blackman to become liaison

9.0: Big Women's session Saturday 14th November 2015 in Plymouth. Starts at 10am.

Big Open training session 21st November 2015 in Exeter. Starts at 10am
